I.

FACTUAL STATEMENT

On or about April 8, 2008, Sergio Mora was named in an Indictment charged with a violation of Title 8, U.S. C., § 1326 (a) and (b) - Attempted Entry After Deportation.

II.

TO COMPEL FURTHER DISCOVERY

Mr. Mora requests the following discovery pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 16:

(A) All written and oral statements made by him. This request includes, but is not limited to any rough notes, records, reports, transcripts or other documents in which statements of Mr. Mora are contained. It also includes the substance or any oral statements which the government intends to introduce at trial, together with any rough notes of any statements. Mr. Mora has been given limited

1 discovery thus far. These documents are discoverable under Federal R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(A);

2 (b) All documents, statements, agents' reports and tangible evidence favorable to Mr. Mora
3 on the issue of guilt and/or which affects the credibility of the government's case. This evidence
4 must be produced to Mr. Mora pursuant to Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963), and United
5 States vs. Agurus, 427 U.S. 97 (1976);

6 (c) All evidence, documents and information pertaining to any prior arrests and convictions
7 or prior bad acts. Evidence of prior record is available under Federal R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(B).
8 Evidence or prior similar acts is discoverable under Fed. R. Crim P. 16(a)(1)(C) and Fed. R. Evid.
9 404 (b) and 609;

10 (d) All evidence seized in the case. These materials are available pursuant to Fed. R. Crim.
11 P. 16(a)(1)(C);

12 (e) All statements which exculpates Mr. Mora or any other person whom the government
13 alleges is a co-conspirator with Mr. Mora. Any statement which exculpates Mr. Mora is 14 discoverable, since the government will argue that statement may be attributed to Mr. Mora under 15 Fed. R. Evid. 801(d)(2)(E). See United States v. Konefal, 556 F. Supp. 698, 705, 07 (N.D.N.Y.
16 1983); United States v. Thevis, 84 F.R.D. 47, 56-57, (N.D.G.A. 1979);

17 (f) All other real and physical evidence, including photograph books, documents,
18 photographs, tangible and other objects which the government intends to introduce in its case-in-
19 chief. Photographs taken contemporaneously with the arrest are relevant and material to the 20 defense. These are discoverable under Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(C);

21 (g) Any and all results, reports, and other documents pertaining to any fingerprint analysis
22 performed on any exhibit. This is discoverable under Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(C);

23 (h) Any and all results and reports of scientific tests or experiments, including DEA Forms 7
24 and 7a. This is available under Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(D). When the case is tried, Mr. Mora may
25 stipulate to the nature of the contraband, but the DEA laboratory reports must be made available
26 before any stipulation is considered.

27 (i) Any Jencks (18 U.S.C. sec. 1300) materials, including but not limited to the testimony
28 before the Grand Jury. All materials should be promptly disclosed to the defense to avoid delay at

1 the time of trial and to allow an opportunity to evaluate, and possible conduct further investigation if
2 necessary.

3 (j) Any and all raw notes made by investigative officers of all witnesses interviewed. United
4 States vs. Harris, 542 F. 2d 1904 (9th Cir. 1976).

5 III.

6 STATEMENTS IN VIOLATION OF MIRANDA V. ARIZONA, 7 384 U.S. 436 (1966) AND/OR NOT GIVEN VOLUNTARILY 8 SHOULD BE SUPPRESSED

9 As stated in Miranda v. Arizona, supra:

10 “The prosecution may not use statements whethis exculpatory or inculpatory,
11 stemming from custodial interrogation of the defendant unless it demonstrates 12 the use of procedural safeguards effective to secure the privilege against self-
13 incrimination. By custodial interrogation, we mean questioning initiated by 14 law enforcement officers after a person has been taken into custody of 15 otherwise deprived or him freedom of action in any significant way”

16 Miranda, 348 U.S. at 444.

17 As the Supreme Court has recognized, coerced statements are inherently suspect, and 18 methods of coercion are not limited to acts of physical brutality. Since Chambers v. States of 19 Florida, 309 U.S. 227 (1940) this court has recognized that the blood of the accused is not the only 20 hallmark of an unconstitutional inquisition. Blackburn v. Alabama, 361 U.S. 199, 206 (1960). The 21 fact the statements in issue might be considered exculpatory is of no significance.

22 It should be made clear that a confession may be involuntary on due process grounds even 23 though police complied with the warning and waiver requirements of Miranda v. Arizona, supra.
24 Moreover, the same standard applying to the voluntariness test must be applied to the alleged waiver
25 of Mr. Mora’s rights. The Supreme Court has stated that the totality of all the surrounding 26 circumstances; both the characteristics of the accused and the details of the interrogation must be
27 considered. Some factors taken into account have included the youth of the accused, e.g., Haley v.
28 Ohio, 332 U.S. 596 (1948); lack of education, e.g., Pane v. Arkansas, 356 U.S. 560 (1958); the length of detention, e.g. Chambers v. Florida, 309 U.S. 227 (1940); repeat and prolonged questioning, e.g., Ashcraft v. Tennessee, 332 U.S. 143 (1944); and the deprivation of food or sleep,

1 e.g., Reck v. Pate 367 U.S. 443 (1961). C.F., United States v. Tingle, 658 F. 2d 1332 (9th Cir.
2 1981). In all of the cases, the courts have determined the factual circumstances surrounding the
3 confession, assessed the psychological impact on the accused, and evaluated the legal significance of 4 how the accused reacted. See, Culombe v. Connecticut, 367 U.S. 568, 603 (1961).

5 Applying these standards to Mr. Mora, if it becomes apparent that under, the totality of the 6 circumstances, he did not waive him rights, and him statements were concomitantly involuntary and
7 not the product of a rational intellect or free will, then such statements, if made, should be
8 suppressed.

9 IV.

11 MR. MORA SHOULD BE ABLE TO FILE
12 FURTHER MOTIONS BASED UPON FACTS AND CIRCUMSTANCES
THAT HE FIRST BECOMES AWARE OF BASED UPON
FURTHER INFORMATION OR DISCOVERY

14 Mr. Mora respectfully requests this Court to grant him leave to make further motions based 15 upon additional information, evidence or discovery occurring prior, during or after this motion date.
16 This, or course, is based upon new or additional information being obtained after the preparation,
17 filing or motion hearing on this matter.

18 V.

19 CONCLUSION

20 Defendant Mora requests the previously discussed motions be granted.
